

How to get there

By Road to Esher

From Central London it is best to leave town via the A3 and follow the signs from the A3 into Esher itself. When you reach the centre of Esher, refer to the map shown here.

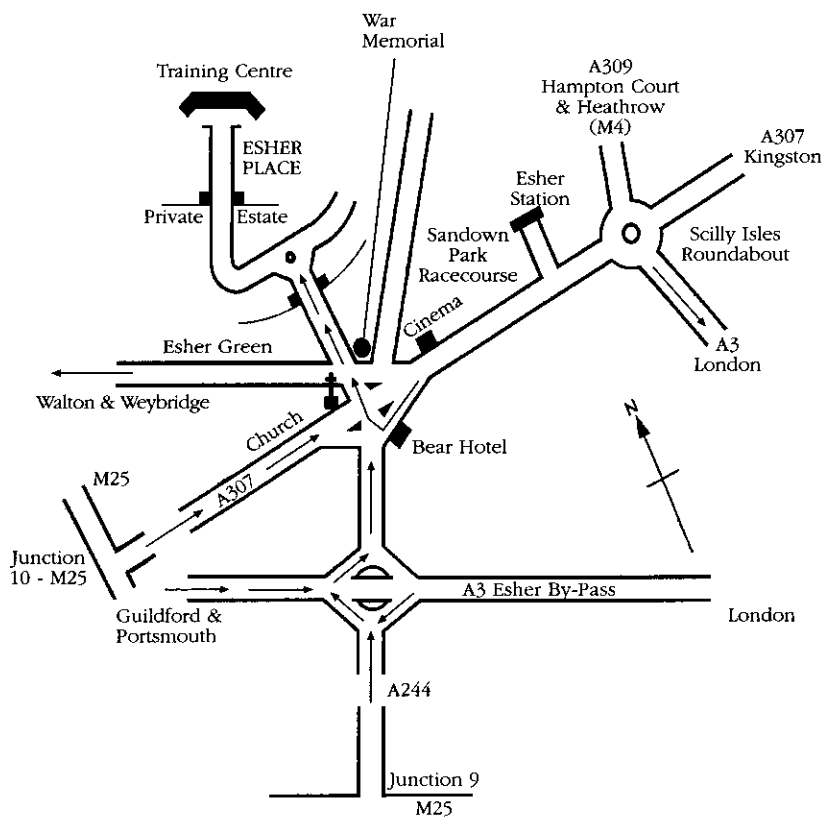

From the North, it is easiest to drive South until you reach the M25. Travel around the M25 to Junction 10 with the A3 and follow the A3, London bound, until you can follow signs to Esher on the A307. Then refer to the map shown here.

These directions also apply to travellers from the West - join the M25 and leave at Junction 10 with the A3. Travel London bound until you see signs for Esher via the A307 and then refer to the map shown here.

Journey along the M25, from the South and East, until you reach Junction 9 of the M25, the Leatherhead exit. Follow the A244 into Esher and then refer to the map shown here.

For delegates attending courses, there is a frequent scheduled train service running between London Waterloo and Esher, with a journey time of only 20 minutes.

The station is just one mile away from Esher Place and a driver can be arranged to collect you. Telephone Esher Place on 01372 463042. It is advisable to have a telephone card as there is no access to a coin phone if the station is unmanned on arrival.
